

WHO'S WHO LEGAL 2018: Repeated Awards for BLOMSTEIN

Press release 11 January 2018

Once again, Roland Stein, Pascal Friton, and Hans-Joachim Prieß are ranked among the best lawyers in “Government Contracts” in Germany by Who’s Who Legal 2018 (WWL).

WWL describes BLOMSTEIN’s public procurement practice as outstanding and highlights Pascal, Roland and Hans-Joachim as three leading lawyers in their field.

According to WWL, Pascal stands out based on his “fantastic reputation in the market for his experience advising contracting authorities and bidders”. His work is appreciated for its “quality, efficiency and accuracy”. Roland “impresses international commentators with his expertise in public procurement”. Special reference is made to his “extraordinary motivation and extensive legal knowledge in public procurement law affairs”. Of Counsel Hans-Joachim is described as “excellent” and appreciated as “a leading expert on international and domestic procurement law matters”.

The listings are based on an independent worldwide survey of companies and their legal departments as well as law firms. Only individuals and law firms with a great amount of recommendations are added to WWL’s list.
